

Writing A-Z

The leveled writing resource you've been looking for

Writing skills are critical to success in school and in the workplace. Writing A-Z is an online resource that offers the leveled assessment, instruction, and practice your students need to improve their writing skills. The product provides a wealth of differentiated materials for individual, small-group, and class-wide instruction, and a set of interactive tools your students use to practice their writing skills online.

With Writing A-Z you get:

- ✓ Resources, lessons, and writing prompts specifically created for students just beginning to experiment with the function and structure of language
- ✓ Leveled lessons, skill-building exercises, and additional resources designed for teaching all genres and text types to grades 1-6
- ✓ Interactive writing tools students use to practice their writing skills and submit assignments to you online
- ✓ The Kids A-Z student learning environment and teacher management hub that saves you time and makes learning fun for your kids

“Before Writing A-Z I avoided teaching writing. Writing A-Z gave me a step-by-step way of teaching different genres at differentiated levels, which not only helped me teach my students, but also helped me become a better writer myself! ”

-Beth Perry, 3rd Grade Teacher, Phoenix, AZ
